Dear Sir/Madam,

I feel immense pleasure to inform your good offices that the Central Council for Research in Ayurvedic Sciences is an apex body functioning under the Ministry of AYUSH, Govt. of India, has worked on development of various digital platforms and portals to cater the need of academicians and researchers and other stake holders which are making a good impact on their functional utility.

2. Recently, the CCRAS – National Centre for Indian Medical Heritage functioning under this Ministry has developed four digital platforms viz. (i) AYUSH Manuscripts Advanced Repository (AMAR), (ii) Showcase of Ayurvedic Historical Imprints (SAHI), (iii) e-Medical Heritage Accession (e-MEDHA) and (iv) Research Management Information System (RMIS). The portals are intended for ease of access to AYUSH books & manuscripts, showcase the scientific evidence of AYUSH Systems and for hand-holding of AYUSH Researchers.

3. Also, this Council in collaboration with Indian Council of Medical Research – National Institute of Medical Statistics, New Delhi has developed dataset items pertaining to Ayurveda for the Clinical Trial Registry of India (CTRI). The key unique features of this digital platform comprise of provision for selection of Ayurveda Health conditions from dropdown of 3866 Ayurveda morbidity codes incorporated from the NAMASTE Portal (a portal for collection of Morbidity Statistics in AYUSH terms) for uniformity of coding, specific options and dropdowns Ayurveda interventions, classification of intervention section into three sub-sections viz. Drugs, Procedures, Lifestyle along with specialized options in Drug section with dropdowns to capture complete details about Ayurveda medicines as well as procedure section designed with 388 codes for easy selection from dropdowns are the key highlights of the Ayurveda dataset items.

4. All the above five portals have been launched by Hon'ble Shri Kiren Rijiju, former Minister of State (Independent Charge), Ministry of AYUSH on the 5th of July 2021 through video conferencing.

Your good offices are requested to visit the said portals, encourage the usage of the same among the faculty, scholars and students of your institute and also to promote the same for the benefit of all stakeholders. The links of the above mentioned portals are as given below. A copy of the brochures of the four portals are also attached for your ready reference.
